Foreword

Since 1992 Jazz Services has been operating a National Touring Support Scheme whose aim is to use the JSL Touring Scheme to promote musicians and bands of merit not readily promoted by the commercial sector and other agencies and to maximise attendance at these events and reflect Jazz Services equal opportunities policy. The policy is mainly geared to small groups and covers the full range of jazz music, idioms and styles.

The purpose of the scheme is to

- To broaden touring opportunities for musicians and include the full range of styles of jazz and related music.
- To encourage musicians and musicians' representatives to seek national touring opportunities
- To support and vitalise small-scale touring which enables British musicians (primarily) to develop national audiences and profile.
- To gather data on venues to refresh JSL's information data base
- To encourage promoters and musicians and help increase the audience for jazz
- To help the selected bands in their promotional efforts by organising and mailing press releases, advising on publicity and marketing and promoting the tours through Jazz UK magazine

Awards are up to a maximum of £2,500 for a minimum of 6 dates.

Applications to the scheme may be made by musicians/bandleaders who are resident in the UK. Please note that dates in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland taken together, can constitute a maximum of 15% of the total dates. The scheme is open to any genre of jazz. The scheme is not open to people in full-time education.

The figures are divided into two groups:

- Activity in a given financial year i.e. all gigs that take place in a financial year and the accompanying data
- Bands that have been given funds in a financial year and the upshot of the activity from that, whether it happens in that financial year or another.

Steve French has, over the years, assiduously grappled with collecting the data and the results have picked up year on year. Between 1992 and 2011 Jazz Services helped 893 bands to tour, playing 6,751 gigs to nearly half a million people, generating box office of £2.7 million and musicians' fees of £2.8 million. Our grateful thanks go to all the promoters, bands and musicians who have accomplished so much for jazz in the UK and a final thank you to Steve French for diligently collecting and preparing the data in the following tables. Please note these are statistical tables. For the bigger picture, please see Jazz Services reports for 2009/10 and 2010/11.
